

Instructor Clinical Evaluation Tool Guidelines

Clinical Objectives

By the end of clinical rotation students will be able to demonstrate the following satisfactory:

1. Maintain professionalism and interpersonal relationships with the interdisciplinary team.
 - A. Show respect for other disciplines, resident and visitor.
 - B. Show respect for authority.
 - C. Utilize proper channels of authority.
 - D. Use criticism for self-growth effectively
 - E. Use proper judgment in conversations with residents, family and staff.
 - F. Completes work on time.
2. Able to communicate effectively with members of the team and residents alike.
 - A. Obtain and understand or clarify when obtaining assignments.
 - B. Seeks additional information when needed.
 - C. Utilizes appropriate sources when obtaining information
 - D. Uses provided information when delivering care.
 - E. Reports significant information to the proper channels in a timely manner.
 - F. Correctly charts information in the appropriate chart.
 - G. Reads and understands pertinent data from charts.
3. Utilized personal care plan in providing care.
 - A. Identifies the need for modification in care and alerts the nurse to make them aware.
 - B. Involves resident in self care as appropriate.
 - C. Uses report data to organize work.
4. Utilizes infection prevention procedure.
 - A. Washes hands properly before and after providing care.
 - B. Wears gloves, gown and or mask when appropriate.

- C. Able to interpret infection precaution signage.
 - D. Observes aseptic technique when indicated.
5. Utilizes safe procedures and provide security to residents.
- A. Aids resident in proper ambulation when needed.
 - B. Assess gait and recognized an unsteady gait
 - C. Able to recognize unsteady/ unsafe resident and prevents accidents.
 - D. Leaves resident in a safe environment when away from bedside.
 - C. Uses side rails and restraints properly.
 - D. Alert to fire hazard and understands the proper evacuation procedures.
 - E. Alert to safety hazards in all areas of the property.
 - F. Uses proper body mechanics when caring for residents.
 - G. Only carries out procedures that student has knowledge of and has practiced in lab.
 - H. Maintains a clean work environment while working.
6. Displays professional appearance.
- A. Refrains from showing tattoos.
 - B. Dresses in proper uniform daily.
 - C. Uniform and shoes are clean and free of debris.
 - D. Maintains positive health habits.
7. Attendance
- A. Student maintains attendance as per Guidelines in the student handbook.
 - B. Student is on time and ready to preform at clinical.
 - C. Notifies instructor at least 30 mins prior to tardiness.
 - E. Does not exceed and utilizes break time as scheduled.

Instructor Classroom/ Lab Evaluation Tool Guidelines

Classroom/ Lab Objectives

By the end of this class the students will be able to demonstrate the following satisfactory:

1. Comes to class on time and leaves when dismissed.
 - A. Arrived to class on time.
 - B. Returns from break on time.
 - C. Does not leave class until dismissed
 - D. Does not come in and out of class throughout the day.
 - E. Communicates effectively regarding late issues or follows up proactively with attendance issue.
2. Listens actively in class and participates.
 - A. Askes questions that are relevant to course content.
 - B. Seeks additional information when needed.
 - C. Maintains eye contact and is free from distraction during class
 - D. Participants on class activities willingly.
 - E. Helps other students when needed and as indicated.
3. Seeks out assistance and direction in lab.
 - A. Seeks additional information when needed.
 - B. Self-directed and seeks opportunities to learn and practice.
 - C. Uses safe practices in the lab.
4. Completes worksheets and is prepared for class.
 - A. Ready for class each day with completed assignments and tools.
 - B. Engages in classroom activities.
 - C. Demonstrates knowledge of content.
 - D. Has workbook in class daily.
5. Utilizes safe procedures and provides security when working in lab.
 - A. Aids resident in proper ambulation when needed.
 - B. Assess gait and recognized an unsteady gait

C. Able to recognize unsteady/ unsafe resident and prevents accidents.